A CHRISTMASTIME™ BOOK

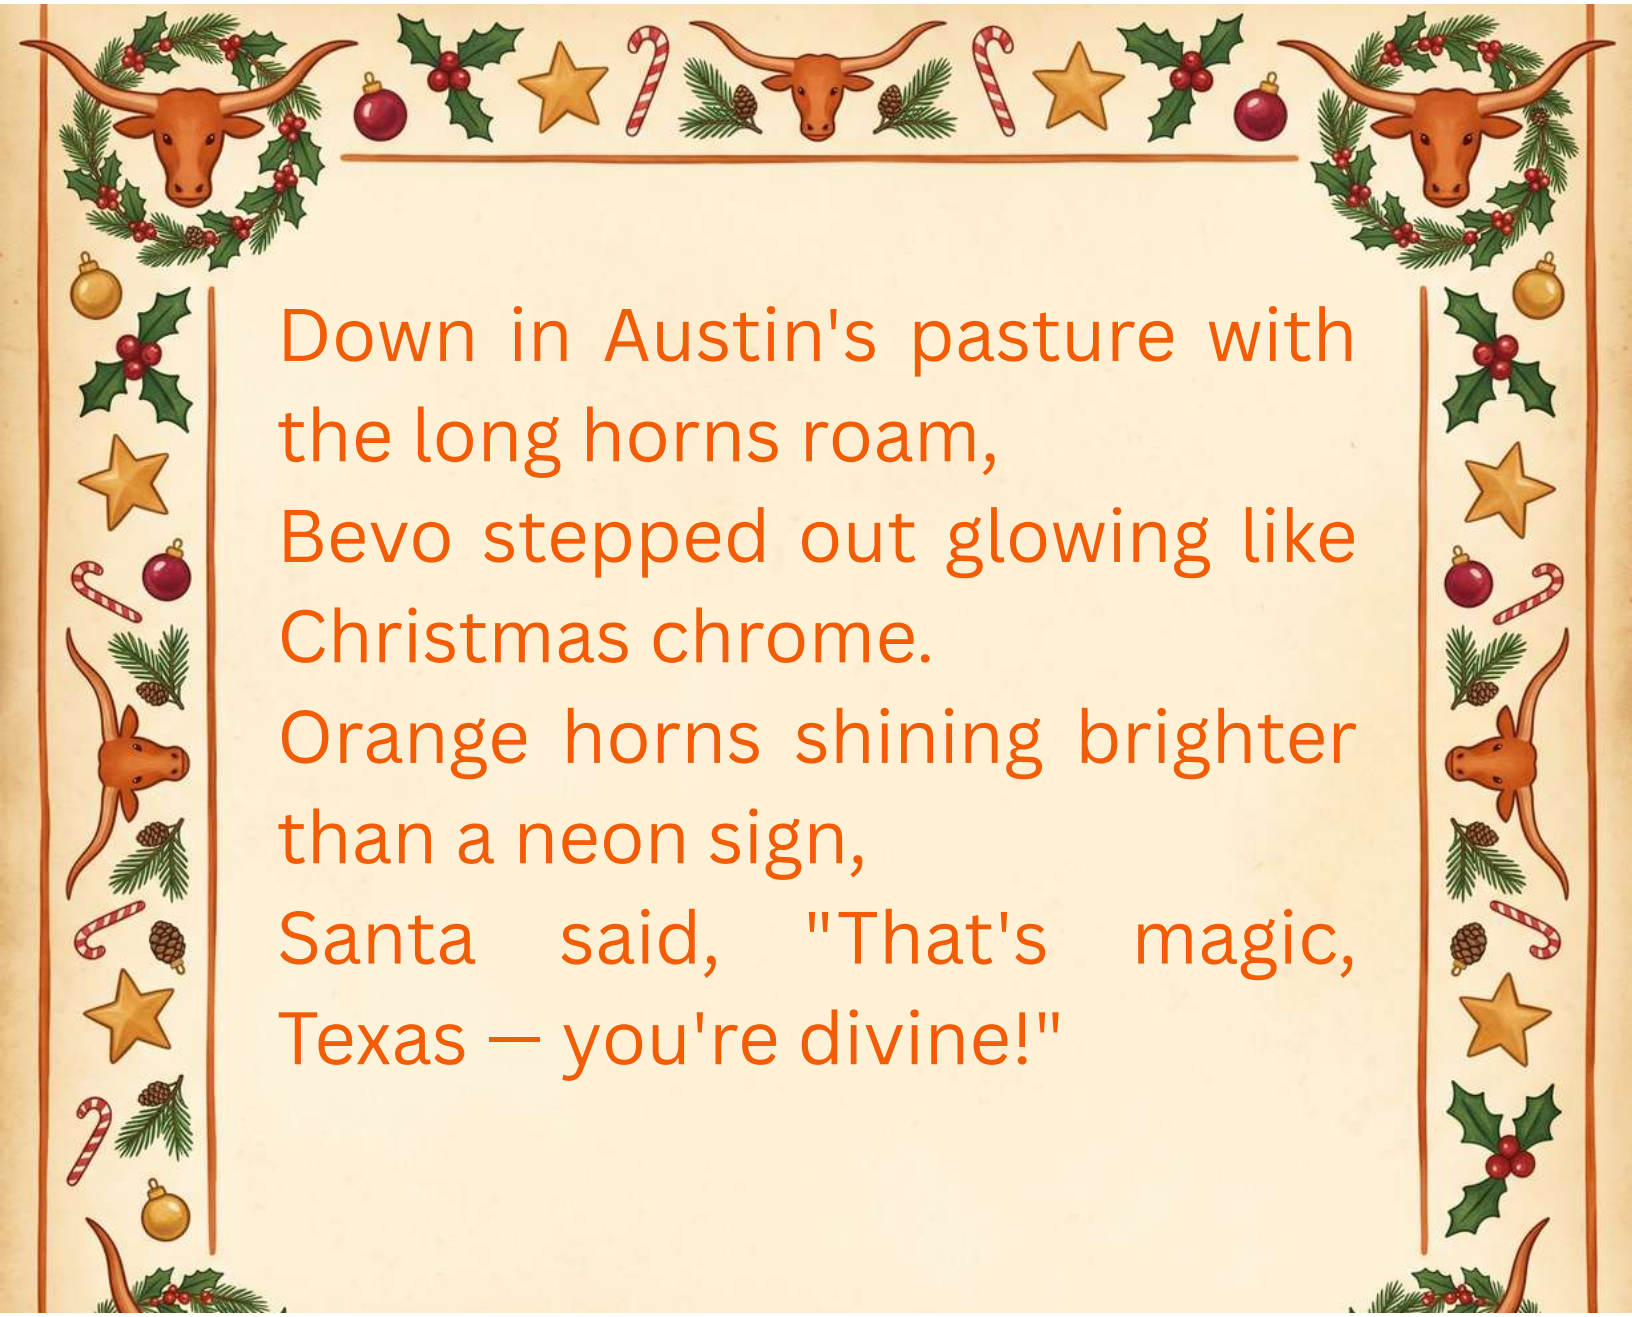

Texas, Christmas is coming in hot tonight,
Santa needed backup, so Bevo's taking the reins.
Orange horns glowing, sky wide open —
Let's light this holiday up!

Sleigh bells ringing loud across the Lone Star sky,
Santa's team was grounded, they just couldn't fly.
Snow up North was heavy, kept them stuck all night,
So Texas got the call to help make the flight.

Down in Austin's pasture with the long horns roam,
Bevo stepped out glowing like Christmas chrome.
Orange horns shining brighter than a neon sign,
Santa said, "That's magic, Texas — you're divine!"

When the reindeer couldn't make it this year,
Texas longhorns showed up with holiday cheer!
Sleigh bells slammin’ as we lift off tonight,
And Bevo leads Texas through the Christmas light.
His glowing horns shine everywhere we go —
We light up Texas with that rudolph glow!
